onsisting of about 15 acres of elegant land just outside the city limits on Camp Full line of fresh green street; in fact, having a frontage on both Camp and Cassic streets. This val-uable land is situated just north of the place owned by W. H. Clough, about seven to ten minutes from Washington street car line. This land Hes practically level and is mostly very productive till-age, on part of which from 4,000 to 5,000 strawberry plants have been set out tals season and will yield the owner next season at least $400.00. There is about one acre of potatoes now growing, which will be sold with the land and go with it. For gardening, there is no better land in New England; nice, deep, rich soil. Will produce from three to five tons of hay to the acre; there is also some wood. For replotting into house lots, this propoattion should appeal to anyone, as houses are already being erected very near this tract, and it is only a question of time when it will be in demand for this purpose. Consequently, it is absolutely sure to make a profitable invest-
